

LI FANG

Head of the Police Component (UNPOL)

Ms. Li Fang currently serves as Head of the Police Component of the United Nations Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in the Central African Republic (MINUSCA). She is a senior police officer with thirty years of law enforcement experience in Shanghai, China. Holding the rank of Police Commissioner, Third Class, she has extensive management experience across various departments of the Shanghai Police Force. Her areas of expertise include public order management, command and control, immigration, traffic management, economic crime investigation, and community policing, as well as training, human resources, strategic planning, and related fields.

Years of service have shaped her character, fostering a strong respect for the chain of command while encouraging independent thinking, rapid learning, knowledge sharing, and the mutual exchange of experience at both domestic and international levels.

Her international experience began in 2008 when she served with the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti (MINUSTAH) for twelve months as a Personnel Officer, including three months as Acting Chief of Personnel. In 2018 and 2019, she successfully completed the United Nations Female Senior Police Leadership Training in Malaysia and the United Nations Police Command Course in Germany. From 2020 to 2021, she served as Senior Police Adviser (SPA) with UNFICYP. In 2023, she attended SML Training in Tokyo, Japan. She was subsequently selected to serve as Police Commissioner with UNITAMS.

Mrs LI Fang holds a Master of Arts in Transnational Crime Prevention from the University of Wollongong, Australia; a Master of Laws from East China University of Political Science and Law, Shanghai, China; and a bachelor's in laws from East China University of Political Science and Law, Shanghai, China.

Mrs LI Fang is married and has a son, a cat and a dog.
