

BIBI-MASUMEH ENG

Principal Political Affairs Officer

Bibi Eng is a senior UN manager with 25 years of political and legal experience including in Eastern Europe and over 15 years in Africa. She has significant experience in management and working with high-profile international officials, and expertise in analyzing political contexts, negotiating conflicts, developing policy, mainstreaming cross-cutting issues, and practicing law relating to intergovernmental organizations.

Currently as Acting Director of the Political Affairs Division in MINUSCA, Ms. Eng helps facilitate political aspects of mandate implementation and the SRSG's vision. She guides Political Officers and helps support authorities in the implementation of the pooled peace process, and directly oversees the Division's analysis and reporting.

Ms. Eng served as UNMIL Chief of Staff in October 2016 after serving as Deputy Chief/Senior Political Affairs Officer with UNMIL Political Affairs Service from June 2016. Prior to joining UNMIL, she has served among others as Deputy Chief of Staff/Senior Political Affairs Officer in Kosovo with UNMIK; and as Senior Legal Officer with United Nations Environment Programme in Nairobi. Ms. Eng has a Juris Doctor from Brooklyn Law School, New York, and holds a Bachelor of Arts in International Relations from Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore. She is a member of the New York State Bar.