

HANAN TALBI

Human Rights Division.

Ms. Hanan Talbi has joined us from Haiti where she most recently served as well as Representative of the UN High Commissioner for Human rights and Head of the BINUH Human Rights section in Haiti.

Ms. Talbi has over twenty two years of experience in human rights, legal affairs and rule of law, including assignments in peace operations and special political missions, UN agencies, funds, and programs, and International NGOs. She has held several management positions and has extensive experience in program management, protection-related areas of work, human rights investigations as well as in the field of transitional justice and accountability in post-conflict settings, including in Mali, CAR and the DRC.

Ms. Talbi holds a master's degree in law and is licensed to practice law with the Brussels Bar.