

JESCA MUYINGO

Director | Strategic Communication & Public Information

Ms. Muyingo is a seasoned international professional with close to 25 years of management experience; she has set up, led and change-managed a range of communications functions, including within peace and humanitarian operations.

Prior to joining MINUSCA, Ms. Muyingo worked, among others, as Senior Communications Officer for the World Food Programme (WFP), and as Chief of Radio and O.i.C Public Information for the UN Mission in Liberia (UNMIL), thus also leading crisis communications through the global response to the COVID-19 pandemic and the West African Ebola outbreaks, respectively. Prior to first joining the United Nations in 2002, she served as reporter, presenter and TV news chief on Finland's national broadcaster YLE.

Ms. Muyingo holds a Bachelor's degree in Communications and Social Sciences, and two Master's degrees in International Studies and Diplomacy from the School of Oriental & African Studies, University of London, and in Public Administration from the John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University.

Of Finnish and Ugandan descent, Ms. Muyingo speaks several languages, most fluently English, French, Finnish and Swedish.
